TO LEAVE STOCKS SEVERELY ALONE.

That Disposition Manifested in the Market Yesterday.

A QUIET FEELING IN LONDON.

Due to the Address of Hon. Joseph Chamberlain Regarding an Anglo-Saxon Alliance-The Bond Market Shows a Reaction.

Work the banks have fallen off leavil, in principal items, but in Chicago and other cities gains seems to be the rule. A reciex movement to this centre would, of course, demoralize the market, but once it is known that a bond issue is not to be made for some time to come, such a movement is bound to follow. The business conditions throughout the West are so favorable, however, that use may be found for a great deal of money that chrewise would be added to the kile expital here. That money can maintain its present level is doubtful. The gains in deposits for the week were made in great part by four or five of the leading banks, and the iman increase is also traceable to them, but the causes operating to groduce them will soon be reflected in other institutions with results not at all difficult to foresee.

The concensus of opinion of tobacco men with whom I have talked is that stocks of tobacco held by dealars for resule are from one-third to one-half of what they have been at this period for the last five or six years, and there are no stocks now in the hands of shippers yet to come in.

The French regie contract for heavy dark western tobacco was awarded to Messrs, Housens, Abenheim & Tocks, of New York. The contract calls for 6,000 hogsheads of heavy dark Kentucky tobacco. The burley contract was not let. The general director of the Italian regie, Mr. Sandri, in his report to the Minister of Finance, says: "The Italian Government bought in 1897 — kilos 'C' type Virginia tobacco, which come originally from the same firms who formerly furnished the contractors with this grade of tobacco, which cost the Government about forty france per quintal (112 paunds), less than tobacco of the same grade bought in 1895 and 1896 through the contractors."

EASTVILLE, VA., May 13.—Special.— This morning about 2 o'clock the resi-dence of Mr. Edward Tyford, a merchant dence of Mr. Lawas entered by a negro of Cape Charles, was entered by a negro slend, Albert Williams, with the intention of committing an assault upon the sf-teen-year-old daughter of Mr. Tyford, wanting in soundness.

The duty of the minister of Christ is to "preach the Word"—the whole inspired Word of God, according to the analogy of the faith. This is the true preaching of the Gospel, which Christ enjoined on His ministers. The whole and the New Testaments together there are sixty-six books. And fifty-one out of these sixty-six books deal with the sub-lect of war-narrate war, describe war, war. It is on these principles that he leading doctrines of international law as to war are founded. Yet, according to the deliverance of the "conclave" aforesaid, the Christian minister is to gnere and push out of view all those eachings of Scripture when his country a actually involved in war, that is, exactly at the time when those teachings activate the time when those teachings are most needed!

We fully admit that war is horrible; that war is entirely the evil work of man, and not instituted by God. All this will not help the "conclave." War stands on the same footing with other evil institutions of man such as polycamy. stitutions of man, such as polygamy, divorce at the sole will of the husband, the "law of retallation" and human slav-God did not institute any of them. titutions, God has tolerated them for a ine. And God regulates them by law, and brings good out of them, and reduces heir evils. And God intends to destroy He has already uprooted several

But God has not yet ended war in our world. The position and duties of a bei-ignerent mariner or a soldier are per-fectly consistent with his personal Chrisdianty. John the Haptist recognized solders as fit for baptism. Christ was on terms of love and confidence with officers and solders of the Roman army, and declared as to the faith of one of the Centurions that he "had not found to great faith-no not in Israel." so great faith-no, not in Israel." Samuel Davies preached war, and found ample warrant for his patriotism in the Word of God. So did Rev. Dr. John Witherspoon, So did Rev. James S. Caldwell. So did hundreds of other faithful Presbyterian ministers. In their words, tories and cowards and traitors found little to encourage them. But the mouths of all those pairiotic ministers would have been stopped by the "conclave," because they were preaching war!

The whole built, or decree, rests upon a false basis. Ministers are to "preach the Gospel." Yes, certainly they are, and they are never preaching the Gospel more truly than when they are expounding the duties arising out of war. No man who deliberately refuses to do duty need expect the benefits of the Gospel. But, of course, the minister need not preach on this subject unduly and out of proportion. He must "rightly divide the Word."
